On Tuesday, 3/25/08 at about 4:30 pm, Detectives Creed and Kelley of the BRIC, monitored a anti-war demonstration at the Park St. MBTA Station that marked the 4000th U.S. death in Iraq. The demonstration was called on short notice and drew about 60 activists. Locally, the demonstration was organized by United For Justice with Peace (UJP) and the Stop The Wars Coalition. The participants in yesterday's demonstration were generally peaceful. Two activists from [REDACTED] were also present outside of the Suffolk University Library located at Tremont and Bromfield Sts. [REDACTED] was asked if he was part of the anti-war demonstration and he stated "no". [REDACTED] went on to say that he and [REDACTED] were having their demonstration but would not specify the reason for the demonstration. [REDACTED] is local group that is made up of pro-Palestine / anti-Israel activists.
